REVISED HOUSE TAX BILL IS IN SENATE'S HANDS

Penrose Promises Speedy Action.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—The house tax bill, as revised by the senate finance committee, was reported to the senate by Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee, today, and notice given that it will be called up for consideration tomorrow. Senator Penrose said he would seek to keep it continuously before the senate until it is disposed of, which probably will be within two weeks. Senator Penrose stated the majority report from the committee may be filed tomorrow. Senator Gerry of Rhode Island obtained permission to file a minority report on behalf of the Democratic members of the committee within seven days. Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, the only Republican member of the committee who is expected to oppose the principal features of the measure, obtained permission to file dissenting views within the same period.

Satisfied with Measure.

The finance committee held a final meeting before the bill was reported to the senate. No changes were made, however, and the measure as it now stands is just as agreed upon a few days ago, when official announcement was made of all the changes from the bill as passed by the house.

Part I of the income tax title includes a provision for determining gain or loss. The section providing a new method for taxing profits from the sale of capital assets has been changed considerably from the form in which it was included in the house bill. The house bill provided that in the case of a taxpayer whose ordinary income and capital net gain together exceeded $20,000, the tax should be determined by applying the normal tax and surtaxes to the ordinary income and imposing a tax of 12 1/2 per cent on the capital net gain, thus creating payment of high surtaxes.

Capital Gain Separate.

The provision in the senate bill provides that the capital net gain shall be taxed separately in the taxpayer's return, and that only 40 per cent of such capital net gain shall be taken into account in determining the amount of net income upon which the normal tax and surtaxes are applied. The house bill provisions applied only to individual taxpayers, but the senate provision applies to corporations as well as individuals.

How Tax Is to Be Collected.

"In any such case the tax shall be collected and paid upon the sum of the amount of the ordinary net income plus 40 per cent of the amount of the capital net gain."

Part of the Income Tax Title, Applying to Individuals, Reenacts the Present Normal Tax Provisions, Reenacts the Present Surplus Tax Rates for Application on the Income of the Calendar Year 1921, and Income of the New Reduced Rates on Income of Years Thereafter and Contains Various Provisions Relative to Deductions, Exemptions, and Definitions.

Administrative Changes Applying to Individual and Corporation Income Taxes Are Made Effective Upon Income of 1921, Payable in 1922, with the Extension of the Increase in the Corporation Income Tax and the Reduced Corporation Rate Which Is Expressly Provided Shall Become Effective on Income of the Calendar Year 1922.

First Corporation Tax.

Part I of the income tax title, applying to corporations, reenacts the present 34 per cent flat corporation tax for income of the calendar year 1921 and provides the new 15 per cent tax effective on income of the calendar year 1922, when the excess profits tax is reenacted.

Among sections contained in part 4 of the income tax title are those relating to the manner of payment of taxes, refunds, penalties, publication of statistics, and provisions which relieve citizens of the United States resident in the Philippines and Porto Rico of the payment of the United States income tax except on income derived from sources within the United States.

Harding OK's Inquiry Into Ku Klux Klan

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Affairs of the Ku Klux Klan were under observation from many sides today. Among the chief developments were: Attorney General Daugherty conferred with President Harding, following a talk with William J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation, department of justice. Great care will be used before course of action is determined. Postmaster General Hays announced to newspapermen that inspectors from his department are investigating affairs of the Klan. Representative Taggart, Democrat, Massachusetts, introduced in the house a resolution for congressional investigation, alleging that there had been more than 100 "acts of abduction, unlawful seizure, trial, and punishment of free citizens" charged against the Klan.

Follows Gotham Conference.

The conference between the attorney general and Burns followed the recent talk on the matter between Mr. Daugherty and United States District Attorney Haywood at New York. The attorney general, after he had seen the president, said that on his face the literature of the Ku Klux Klan was not in violation of law and that he desired further information before deciding on the course to be followed. It was the general belief that the president had expressed the opinion that further information should be obtained. While Postmaster General Hays refused to go into details as to his investigation, he said to newspapermen:

"The inspection service is making a very vigorous investigation of the Ku Klux Klan." Probable course of any action by the government, should information from any source warrant, was indicated by Mr. Daugherty to lie under the statutes dealing with unlawful conspiracies. It is generally known that the law in that regard covers the efforts of any group to accomplish a legal end by illegal means as well as the accomplishment of an illegal end by illegal means.

Two Klan Officials Quit.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 21.—Col. William J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and emperor of the Invisible Empire, announced today he had received the resignations of Edward Young Clark and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler. The latter is head of the woman's auxiliary of the Klan. He said he would not act on them until after an investigation. Denying he had ousted A. Donald Bate, Newark, N. J., as a klieg, Simmons admitted receiving Bate's demand for dismissal of Clark and Mrs. Tyler.

FIGHT RUSHED AT CHICAGO.

Demand for state and national investigation of the Ku Klux Klan was planned yesterday at a meeting of the executive committee of the Illinois chapter of the National Unity council at the Hotel Morrison. Former Gov. Edward F. Dunne is chairman of the committee.

Legislative group of the National Unity council will commence immediately the drafting of bills to be presented at Springfield and Washington for the curbing of and possible dissolution of the Ku Klux Klan.

"Cousin Everett" Files Writ to Regain Freedom

Everett A. Harding, the Chicagoan who foisted a number of prominent politicians and citizens with his pose as a "cousin of President Harding" and was recently sent to Leavenworth penitentiary for fifteen months after conviction on the charge of impersonating a federal officer, has filed habeas corpus proceedings in the District court at Topeka, Kas., in an effort to regain his freedom.

SOME CANDIDATES FOR THE KLAN

(Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.)

Aleck Tittle, who sent $500 several years ago for a badge and membership of the North American Detective association, has joined the Ku Klux Klan. He has sent in his $10 and hopes to be a King Kleagle with a nightgown and dance cap.

Alonso Smelly, who recently lost $1,000, first payment on the Woolworth building, has sent in his $10 and is now a full fledged King in the Invisible Empire. Cheap at the price, says Lon. "Tain't ever buddy kin be a King."

Luther Slapp, who recently inherited a $1,000 Liberty bond from his mother, has raised a Charley Chaplin mustache, bought a dress suit, a shawl, an auto, and a diamond ring. He is hoping to join the Ku Klux Klan if his money holds out.

Mr. J. Rufus Wallingford and Mr. Ponsi, both well known financiers, are planning a rival organization of the Ku Klux Klan.

3 STRANGE TRAIN MURDERS FOUND BY ILLINOIS CREW

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—The bodies of three murdered men were found within a few miles of each other in southern Illinois this evening by crews of Missouri Pacific trains. Two of the men, in uniforms, are believed to have been former soldiers. Police here believe robbery was the motive and assert the triple murder occurred on the same freight train. The bodies have not yet been identified and are in a morgue at East St. Louis, Ill.

One body was found in a car of lumber at Duplo, a second near the tracks at Wolf Lake, ninety miles from here, and the third on the right of way at Halsey, two miles from Wolf Lake.

Two of the men had been shot and crushed and the third had been shot three times.

Two express receipts to W. W. Kildine, one issued at Bigelow, Ark., Sept. 18 and the other at Clark, La., destination New Washington, O., were found in the clothing of the man in the box car.

The initials in the pocket of the army coat worn by one man were "E. R. H., 7th infantry, Company D."

TAXI IN CANAL; HUNT VICTIMS, BUT FIND NONE

Tales of five people in a taxicab careening through Palos Park at early hour Sunday morning and the discovery of an automobile in the Calumet-Sag canal, between Palos Park and Worth, yesterday caused reports that possibly five people had been drowned as the climax of a booze joy party.

According to a resident of Palos Park, a cab containing, besides the driver, two women and their escorts, circled the village at a high rate of speed Sunday morning. Then they disappeared in the direction of the canal.

Sunday afternoon Fred Kettle, a trackwalker, noticed the imprints of automobile tires leading from the Palos Park road along the railroad tracks to the railroad bridge above the canal. A search of the stream yesterday brought no results. It is doubted if any one was drowned.

Masked Men Whip Barber; Told to Quit Boynton, Okla.

Muskogee, Okla., Sept. 21.—All Okla. county, a barber of Boynton, Muskogee county, was whipped by a band of eighteen masked men tonight and given eighteen hours in which to leave town. "We are not members of the Ku Klux Klan," the masked men told Anderson.

NEW EVIDENCE HITS ARBUCKLE; TOLD BY "PAL"

Grave Admissions by "Fatty" Alleged.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—Admissions declared to have been made by Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle that he had used a foreign substance in an attack upon Miss Virginia Rappe during a party at the Hotel St. Francis, in San Francisco, were testified to by Al Semmacker, a friend of Arbuckle, today before the Los Angeles county grand jury, according to W. C. Doran, chief deputy state attorney.

Doran said Semmacker swore Arbuckle had told of applying ice to portions of Miss Rappe's body. Doran outlined the testimony in confirming reports that Semmacker had made identical statements to him at an earlier time and then had declared that he had not, even at the San Francisco inquiry, told of the alleged admitted acts.

"Admits Part of Crime."

Semmacker testified that on the morning following the party in the Hotel St. Francis Arbuckle had told him in the presence of Lowell Sherman, actor; Fred Fishback, director; and Harry McCullough, chauffeur, that he had taken Miss Rappe into a room with him and had injured her while committing certain acts in connection with the alleged crime.

These acts, according to Chief Deputy Doran, were of a character likely to have caused the injury from which Miss Rappe's death resulted.

The grand jury session was called by Doran to hear this testimony, information concerning which was immediately telephoned to District Attorney Brady at San Francisco.

McCullough also was examined by the grand jury, but his testimony was not made public.

Brady announced over the telephone to the district attorney's office that his witnesses were mysteriously vanishing or showing unmistakable signs of having been tampered with by the "alibi influences" behind Arbuckle.

Semmacker Angers Brady.

The San Francisco official was indignant at the report that Semmacker had said here that he did not have money enough to go to San Francisco to give testimony in the case.

"I told him to get up here without any loss of time or suffer the consequences," Brady said over the telephone. "It seems strange to me that he could bring Miss Rappe and Mrs. Delmont to San Francisco from Los Angeles in an automobile and evidently spend a lot of money here and then suddenly lose all he has in the world."

The train fare from Los Angeles is $22 and the boat fare is about $18.

MURDER HEARING TODAY

BY EDWARD J. DOHERTY.
San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, "king of slapstick" charged with the murder of Virginia Rappe, Chicago movie actress, heaved his huge frame off the seat in the visitors' cage in the prison this afternoon, rolled a brown paper cigar, smiled his custard pie smile, and observed he wasn't worried.

It was rather warm in the cage. "Fatty" was in his shirt sleeves, a huge bulk behind the double mesh screen—behind the screen and not on it—a comic figure misplaced in a tragic role.

Tomorrow afternoon he will go before Judge Sylvan Lazarus for the preliminary hearing on the murder charge. He said he had nothing to say about the ordeal.

Meantime the officers of the court are preparing for the morrow. It is the woman's court; hence everybody will be rigorously ruled out of the courtroom except members of women's organizations, newspaper men, witnesses, and court attendants.

File with Red Headed Girl.

New York, Sept. 21.—Lowell Sherman, actor, wanted by District Attorney Brady of San Francisco in connection with the case against Roscoe Arbuckle, today left a train at Harmon, N. Y., when on the way to New York and vanished in an automobile with a red haired woman.

This information was given to a representative of District Attorney Swann's office when he went to the Grand Central station here to meet the Twentieth Century Limited from Chicago and detain Sherman, as requested in a telegram from Brady. Mr. Swann at once asked the police of Westchester county to locate Sherman.

1 Dies, 6 Saved in a 13 Hour Fight in Lake

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 21.—After struggling for thirteen hours against the heavy storm that struck Lake Michigan today the crew of the steam yacht Cambria, one dead and the remaining six suffering severely from exposure, were taken from the ship tonight by coast guards, fifteen minutes before the boat sank.

Oren Graham, 35 years old, a fireman, and one of the owners of the boat, was killed when overcome by steam after he entered the boiler room when a flue blew up. His home is at Sturgeon Bay, Wis.

Coast Guard Vessel to Rescue.

The coast guard station received a wireless at noon from the coal boat, Harry M. Croft, that a ship was sinking about 35 miles northeast from Milwaukee. Capt. Harry Kincaid and a crew started out in the station cutter, taking with them Dr. Benno Koch of the United States Public Health Service.

The life saving crew arrived at the side of the sinking vessel shortly before dark, after a battle against a heavy sea. The storm, which was still raging, hindered the work, but the men finally were taken off.

FAMILY OF 3 SAVED.

After vainly battling a stiff gale seven miles off Evanston yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hauke and their 2 year old son of Saugatuck, Mich., were rescued by the crew of the life saving station at the mouth of the river.

3 MEN, 3 WOMEN, SEIZED AT PARTY IN THE CONGRESS

Three men and three women will tell the judge in the morals court this morning of their lively negligence party in the Congress hotel which was interrupted by their arrest late last night.

The men after being booked on charges of disorderly conduct at the South Clark street station were released on bonds, but because of a ruling of the police department the women were held for medical examination in the health department at the city hall.

Those seized by the police in the raid on the room gave their names as follows:

Robert Arthur, 48 years old, Pittsburgh, Pa., store manager, registered in room 3-9 at the Congress.

Attorney Alexander Taylor, 39 years old, 2417 North Racine avenue.

Charles Sultmeier, 54 years old, Milwaukee, storekeeper.

Miss Blanche Saunders, 28 years old, 4128 Sheridan road, nurse.

Miss Emily Stubbs, 24 years old, 454 West 46th place, dressmaker.

Miss Jane Andrews, 22 years old, 4128 Sheridan road, nurse.

Arthur registered at the hotel Tuesday and early last night is said to have rounded up his two friends and a short time later they and the women went to his room. There they are alleged to have imbibed freely. Special Policeman J. McAlvany called in Policemen Fitzgibbons and Curry and the arrest of the party followed.

SOLVE MYSTERY OF WOMAN'S LEG; 'T' WAS SOLID OAK

Introducing the "Mystery of the Missing Leg." Paul Dempsey, 3254 North Sacramento avenue, was walking along School street last night when he stumbled over a woman's leg—limb.

Some time later he walked into the Irving Park police station, the limb thrown carelessly over his shoulder like a musket.

After the police recovered they found the delightfully carved limb was made of oak wood and bore the carved inscription: "Florence Bernard, Room 229; C.N."

First National Orders All Rappe Films Stopped

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 21.—All First National Film Exchanges were ordered today to withdraw all films from exhibition in which appeared Virginia Rappe. It was announced here today. Thirty-two hundred exhibitors are represented in the action.

300 BODIES ON RIM OF DYE PLANT DEBRIS

Oppau in Ruins; 3 Trains Buried.

LONDON, Sept. 22, 3 a. m.—A dispatch to the Times from Mayence says that all the French soldiers on guard duty at the Oppau works were killed and that a number of French soldiers aboard a French transport were injured.

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.] [Copyright: 1921.]

BULLETIN.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The greatest explosion catastrophe in German industrial history occurred at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The synthetic nitrate plant of the famous Badische Anilin- und Fabrik company in Oppau was destroyed with hundreds of casualties.

The village was laid waste. All roads leading from the plant were lined with bodies of dead and hundreds of wounded.

At a late hour tonight 300 dead and 1,500 wounded had been counted, but the rescuers had been unable to invade the chemical gas cloud around the heart of the explosion.

Fear 1,000 More Dead. Estimates were that the clouds of smoke and fumes within the plant covered from 1,000 to 1,500 more dead, as 800 were believed to be in the section of the plant where the first explosion occurred. The number of wounded will run into thousands, as the plant had 10,000 workmen, and a wide section outside the works was affected by the explosion.

Two explosions took place about 7:30 o'clock this morning during a change of working shifts. The shock was felt and damage was done within a radius of fifty miles.

The entire factory building was lifted off its foundations high into the air, and it fell back a rubbish heap, surrounded by impenetrable fog of chemical fumes. All workers in and about the plant are believed to have been killed.

Three Trains Buried. Three trains just pulling in loaded with workers for the new shift, were catapulted through the air and buried in ruins.

Many children bound for school were killed or injured.

The explosion caused a panicky feeling in the Rhine palatinate, as damage was done even in Mannheim, some distance down the river. Dark green chemical vapor clouds overhang Ludwigshafen and Mannheim, where all the hospitals are overcrowded.

French Troops Guard Ruins. Wives and children of workmen battled with French troops to break through the strong cordon drawn at a wide radius around the scene of disaster. Firemen and police, with gas masks, were trying to buck through the chemical barrier which was frustrating rescue work.

Further explosions are feared. So far as could be learned, the explosion was not directly connected with the manufacturing process of synthetic nitrates, but was caused by an explosion of a gas compressor in a subsidiary building of the nitrate plant.

All available transportation was rushed to the catastrophe from the surrounding countryside and the nearest cities. The French garrison at Ludwigshafen reported that it was holding itself in readiness as a result of the explosion. Its horses were transported across the Rhine to Mannheim.

Aided Germany in War. The Oppau plant manufactured nitrates, employing nitrogen extracted from the air by a famous process discovered by Privy Councillor Haber, who won a Nobel prize for his achievement. The plant was built on a small scale at first and saved Germany from a military collapse in the spring of 1915 by supplying artificial nitrates when the British blockade cut off the Chile saltpetre supply. The plant also supplied vast quantities of poison gas.

SCENE OF DESOLATION

MATENCE, Germany, Sept. 21.—[By the Associated Press.]—The town of Oppau is a scene of utter desolation, more than a third of the houses having been completely destroyed, while the roofs of the others were swept off as if by a whirlwind. Here also many were killed or injured.

The explosion is attributed by some to excess pressure in two adjoining gasometers, the whole of the works being literally pulverized. Where the gasometers stood is now a funnel shaped hole 130 yards wide and forty-five yards deep, while twisted girders and debris of every description scattered about. For a distance of several hundred yards not a wall is left standing.

Rescuers who penetrated Oppau reported finding hundreds of dead and wounded lying in the debris. The uninjured inhabitants fled in panic when the explosions occurred.

Heart-rending scenes were witnessed on all sides. At the little cemetery on the outskirts of Oppau there are already more than 200 bodies laid out on the grass. Numerous tombstones were lifted and hurled in various directions by the force of the explosion.

French medical units are aiding in the rescue work. Assistance has also been rushed from all the neighboring towns, and all public and private motor cars and vehicles were requisitioned. The roads leading to Oppau were soon crowded with people making their way to the scene of the disaster.

A regiment of colonial infantry and the first Madagascan regiment from Ludwigshafen immediately proceeded to Oppau to preserve order and aid in the work of rescue.

An Eyewitness Story.
Describing the disaster, a captain of the first French colonial infantry, who was an eyewitness, said:

"I was riding close to the factory at 7:30 o'clock in the morning, when suddenly I heard a dull rumbling. The earth seemed to quiver and an immense column of flame and smoke shot up a few hundred yards from me, followed immediately by an explosion and a rush of air which hurled me and my horse to the earth. When I picked myself up an immense cloud of dust and smoke hid that part of the factory near the gasometers. All sorts of objects, beams, blocks, stones and bricks rained down on the road.

"Hearing cries behind me I turned and realized that the village of Oppau was destroyed as by an earthquake. Shortly after, the main buildings of the plant burst into flames, and the air was filled with the fumes of ammonia. Twenty minutes after the first explosion there was another but less violent explosion.

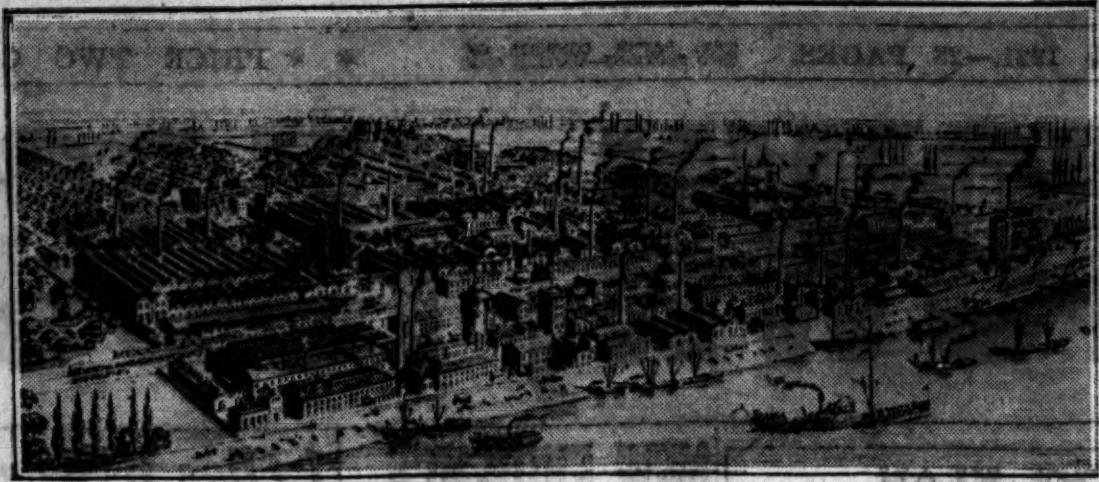

"The alarm was quickly given and in less than half an hour after the first explosion help arrived. Unfortunately, as further explosions were feared, the rescue parties were not able to get to work properly before 9 o'clock."

A late statement issued by the management of the Oppau factory says the explosion occurred in a reservoir containing 200 tons of ammonium sulphate. It adds that all necessary precautions had been taken during the process of manufacture and storing the product, so that an explosion seemed impossible.

An inquiry has been opened.
Blast Halts Frankfurt Cars.
FRANKFURT-ON-THINE-MAIN, Germany, Sept. 21.—The Badische Anilin- und Fabrik company, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung, states that the plant at Oppau, where today's disastrous explosion occurred, was "partially destroyed." Further explosions, it was stated, were not feared.

The company's plant at Ludwigshafen, one of the largest in Germany, was not harmed. The Frankfurter Zeitung adds, however, was considerably damaged. Here in Frankfurt, forty miles from Oppau, the street cars were temporarily tied up by the effect of the concussion.
Reports from the scene say that

PLANT LIKE THIS IS TOMB FOR 1,500

The chemical products plant at Oppau, Germany, which blew up yesterday, was similar to the parent plant of the Badische Anilin- und Fabrik company at Ludwigshafen, a much larger Rhine city, thirteen miles away. The above photograph is of the plant at Ludwigshafen. Both plants were run at high speed during the war and made poisonous gases and explosives for the German army. The allied air raiders frequently bombed these plants.

large forces of police and firemen, equipped with gas masks to guard them from the chemical fumes, are working to remove the injured, but are being hampered by a shortage of transportation.

WHERE KAISER MADE POWDER.

The region in the Rhine Palatinate where yesterday's disastrous explosion occurred was developed during the war into one of the most extensive and productive of Germany's chemical munition supply districts.

Oppau itself is a comparatively small town with only a few thousand population, but nearby are Frankenthal, a considerably larger place, and Ludwigshafen, which has a population of some 75,000 and which during the war was accounted the largest of the German chemical manufacturing plants for war purposes.

During the war the region was frequently bombed by allied air squadrons, Ludwigshafen being their principal target.

Court Asks $1,450,000 for 'Bombing Trust' Case Bonds

Prohibitive bonds of $1,450,000 were set yesterday for the release of the five defendants in the "bombing trust" by Judge Haas in the Municipal court. Charges of bombing the shoe repair shop of Andrew Brennan, 7805 South Halsted street, were made in the warrants.

Police Rout Robbers of Oil Station; One Is Shot

Surprised while holding up an oil station at 7th street and Western avenue, one bandit was wounded and three others routed by detectives. Raymond Smith, 20, 5739 West Rice street, the wounded one, is believed to be dying in St. Bernard's hospital.

BRITISH OBTAIN SECRET APPEAL FOR INDIA REVOLT

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

LONDON, Sept. 21.—[London Telegram.]—The British authorities in India have obtained a document calling on all Mussulmans in India to proclaim complete independence from Great Britain and to set up a republic in the event that the British take action against the Angora government of Turkey. The All brothers, the leading Bombay, India, agitators, are being prosecuted by the government in connection with the affair. The document is in the form of resolutions which were passed at the recent All India Khalfate conference held at Karachi.

In part the document follows: "This conference proclaims that if the British government openly or secretly takes action against the Angora government the Mussulmans of India will be forced to commence civil disobedience, and the Indians of India should proclaim complete freedom and a republican form of government."

CITE BREITUNG AS 'VAG'; SEQUEL TO LOVE NEST RAID

Recently Arrested with Two Girls in N. Y.

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Edward N. Breitung, a wealthy banker and mine owner, was arraigned in Yorkville court today on the technical charge of vagrancy.

Breitung is the first man to be arrested in this city under an amendment of the vagrancy law which writes the single standard of morality into the code of criminal procedure of the state of New York. Thousands of women have been arrested and punished under this section, but it has not before been enforced against men, although the amendment is more than five years old.

The charge grew out of a raid on a Madison avenue apartment on the afternoon of July 9. Jean Whitney, 19, and Edna Clark, 22, were arrested in the raid.

Breitung, witness for the defense, declined to answer many questions on the ground that his testimony might tend to degrade or incriminate him. Breitung was later arrested and today before Magistrate Ryttenberg entered a plea of not guilty. Magistrate Ryttenberg adjourned the case until Sept. 28, directing the lawyers to submit briefs.

Stigma on 'Fatty' to Turn Namesake Into Beef Stew

Slouch City, Ia., Sept. 21.—[United News.]—The latest scandal in movie land is going to send Fatty Arbuckle II to the slaughter block.

Fatty Arbuckle II, is Nebraska's champion corn fed steer. He was to have been sent to the fat stock show in Chicago this fall in a special car, accompanied by grooms, in the quest of the blue ribbon.

Instead his owner, Tom Drayton of Orchard, Neb., has decided to make him into fancy sirloin and beef steaks. "It would be thumbs down for Fatty II," Drayton said. "He just couldn't win with that name."

REDS FOMENTING TROUBLE AMONG STEEL WORKERS

Open revolution is being preached among the unemployed in the Calumet region, by I. W. W. agitators, who are said to be engineering a strike as the first move among workers in the steel mills at Hammond and Gary. Labor leaders say the prestige of the American Federation of Labor among the workers is being supplanted by that of the "wobblies," who are organizing the "Red" and metal workers into a union which is gaining rapidly in numbers.

Three I. W. W. organizers are working in Hammond and Gary, an English firebrand who has run afoul of the federal authorities time and again, has been sent for. Tanner is said to have made his headquarters in Chicago recently.

Are Your Radiators Fitted This Way?

THE radiator shown above is equipped with a "Trico" Cover. With the heat turned on, the top is still cool—to be used as a window seat, or, if the radiator is high, a handsome shelf.

It is finished as a piece of fine furniture—mahogany, oak, white enamel, two-tone or any other. As you can see, it protects the curtains and walls from dusty air currents that ruin decorations in a short time.

"Trico" does more than all this. It keeps the air moist and healthy. There is far less sickness and much greater comfort now in hundreds of homes where "Trico" is installed.

We are now equipping many homes before cold weather sets in. Let us talk to you about your home. You can see "Trico" at the Building Materials Exhibit, Sixth Floor, Leiter Bldg., Cor. ## DEMOCRATS DIG UP HATCHET AND SINK IT IN G. O. P.

Harding's Golf Exploits Target for Harrison.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Highly elated over the attitude of the voters towards the Harding administration, Republican senators returned to Washington for the reconvening of congress today just in time to confront an open declaration of bitter partisan warfare by the Democrats.

Senator Harrison, Mississippi, the most fiery of the Democratic warriors, dug up the hatchet and went on the warpath a few minutes after Vice President Coolidge called the senate to order. He made a vehement speech, replying to the letter written by President Harding to Senator McCormick, Illinois, recounting the achievements of the Republican party since March 4. He charged that the administration had exhibited "pitiable inefficiency" and had practiced "outrageous extravagance."

Proof of Voters' Pudding.
Senator Lodge, Republican leader, promptly retorted by reading the returns from New Mexico, where Senator Burren, Republican, won a sweeping victory yesterday in the election to fill the vacancy caused when Albert B. Fall resigned to go into the cabinet.

Senator Harrison's assault was generally interpreted as the forerunner of a new spirited politics to come. The party and tranquility of the Democrats for the first six months of the Harding administration are over. Democratic party leaders have held several sessions during the recess and from now on they are going to adopt more aggressive tactics, with an eye to next year's congressional election.

The President's golf games were mentioned in the "More work and less play" were demanded by the people, the senator said.

Auction Block for Veterans.
"While millions of our citizens were bowed with shame over the disgraceful sight of our jobless war heroes being offered on the auction block, the President was sitting about on the Mayflower and playing golf," Mr. Harrison continued.

"You promised the veterans adjusted compensation and what you gave them is an auction block."

Senator Harrison charged that Mr. Harding had adopted the same course for which the Republicans had condemned President Wilson in his letter asking for the election of a Democratic congress in 1912.

"The President," he said, "has laid down the gauntlet, and even though the Democrats in congress would much prefer to see politics adjourned until the great economic questions are solved, we accept the gauntlet of battle and I propose at this time to analyze the so-called monumental achievements of this administration and expose the hypocrisy and deceit thereof."

"Why He Wrote McCormick."
"It is natural, yet somewhat ludicrous, that the President should have written to Senator McCormick, whose city is the habitat of the five big packers and in which are located the great grain exchanges. All of these measures before enactment were shorn of their best features and all the teeth they originally possessed were extracted before they were allowed to be passed."

"You have passed only such legislation as was forced upon you and you did it with no spirit of party enthusiasm or public concern."

"What the people want is results, not recommendations; works, not words; prosperity, not poorhouses; meat tickets, not breadlines."

NORTHWEST SIDE FALL FESTIVAL OPEN TOMORROW
West North avenue, between California and Western avenues, will look like a bit of the old home town for the next few weeks during the annual fall festival of the West North Avenue Professional and Business Men's association.

The festival will open tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock with a procession of automobiles, starting at Humboldt park and North avenue. Pumpkin patches and corn stalks, apples, hay and what shocks all will be used to camouflage the business aspect of the thoroughfare. Mr. E. Mosier is president of the association.

Fugitive Cashiers of Bond House Captured in Mobile
Guy Bell, 4543 Greenview avenue, and Mason Roberts, 5000 South Ada street, cashiers of Merrill, Lynch, Co., brokers, 105 South La Salle street, who fled following the alleged discovery of shortages in their accounts, were found in Mobile, Ala., yesterday. It is claimed $2,000 in cash disappeared.

VICTIMS OF MURDERER'S SPIKE-STUDDED BLUDGEON

William Monroe, father of the family and one of the victims of the murder.

Mrs. William Monroe, whose body was found beside that of her husband.

Coroner S. E. Bryant is shown holding the spike-studded bludgeon with which the murders were committed. The club, with the alarm clock, bears the bloody imprints of fingers, and may yield a clue to solve the crime.

HUNT CLEWS IN CLUB MURDER OF 3 IN DOWAGIAC

Man Lurking at Scene Sought.

BY JAMES L. DOHERTY.
Dowagiac, Mich., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Whether Neva Monroe, 17 and pretty, was attacked before the spiked club beat out her life and the lives of her father and mother and mangled her 12 year old sister, Ardith, will be determined at the inquest tomorrow morning by Coroner S. E. Bryant.

An autopsy was held upon the bodies late this afternoon, particular attention being given to that of Neva, who is thought to have been the cause of the murderer's midnight visit to the Monroe home. A previous illness was to be investigated by the physicians, whose report will be made public at the inquest.

The discovery of the mangled bodies of Mr. and Mrs. William Monroe and Neva, and the pitiful plight of Ardith, who, though beaten terrifically and unable to move, was able to cry "Mamma, mamma," when little Grace McKee, her playmate, discovered the tragedy Tuesday evening, has horrified the entire surrounding country and moved Sheriff Sherman P. Wyman to determined efforts to solve the mysterious crime.

Sheriff Hunts Down Clues.
The sheriff left this afternoon for Detroit, seeking information on the present whereabouts of William Kenney, a former resident of Dowagiac. According to his information, Kenney, who is married and has a 12 year old daughter, sold his home here a year ago last spring and departed after a violent quarrel with Monroe. His attentions to Neva are said to be responsible.

Several persons reported to the authorities they had seen Kenney here Saturday night. Shortly before Kenney's departure Neva was forced to quit high school due to illness. After an absence of a year she resumed her studies of shorthand and typewriting this month.

Coroner S. E. Bryant and State's Attorney C. W. Hendrix, in conjunction with the sheriff and Edward Evans, a Chicago fingerprint expert, made a thorough investigation of the Monroe home and of the nail studded club used in the crime. They obtained no tangible clues.

Mailroom to Be Quizzed.
Herbert Smith, a neighbor of the Monroes, is to be brought back from Kalamazoo, to be questioned regarding quarrels with Monroe over the latter's chickens. Smith, a halfbreed, left Monday for a sanatorium, asthma was given as the cause; his wife said he was not out of her sight from Saturday till Monday afternoon.

W. H. Carey, superintendent of the local high school, is aiding in the search for boys of abnormal mentality, one of whom may have sought to wipe out the entire family because of a rebuff to his attentions.

Robbery as a possible motive is not being overlooked. It was learned that Monroe had no bank account, though a steady worker and thrifty. Neva and her mother frequently remarked that they would soon have a new home built, that the father had saved up enough money.

DEATHS HEAD IN OFFICE.
William H. McAndrews, 71 years old, of 745 Oakwood boulevard, a massmurderer, died suddenly in his office at 709 East 39th street of heart disease yesterday.

Neva Monroe, the 17 year old daughter, slain in a room adjoining that of her parents.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21. Secretary of State Hughes is maturing a plan of settlement of Pacific and far eastern problems which he will submit to the international conference on limitation of armament in November.

Republicans, returning to congress after a month's recess, are elated over voters' attitude toward the Harding administration, while Democrats, led by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, declare partisan warfare.

Congress re-opened today to finish vast program of legislation, but the senate was so handicapped by absenteeism that it was rendered well nigh helpless.

Senator Penrose reported the house tax bill as amended by the senate finance committee to the senate and gave notice that he will call it up for consideration tomorrow. The Democrats were given permission to file a minority report within seven days, and Senator La Follette obtained the same privilege.

Mail robberies have been practically stamped out as a result of the office of postal employees by the post-office department and the offer of a reward for the capture of mail robbers.

Attorney general confers with Harding on Ku Klux Klan and further inquiry will be made; Postmaster General Hays making own investigation; congressional inquiry asked by a congressman from Massachusetts.

SOLVE PROBLEM OF CHEAP OXYGEN, SCIENTIST SAYS
A method of making cheap oxygen whereby the manufacture of gas and steel and many other staple commodities will be greatly reduced in cost was announced yesterday before the fifteenth annual convention of the Association of Iron and Steel Electrical Engineers at the Hotel La Salle.

The paper was written by E. A. W. Jefferies, an engineer of Worcester, Mass., who gained renown for his government wartime work on helium. His son is president of the association.

PERSHING AGAIN FIRST IN HEARTS OF ALL FRANCE

U. S. General Receives a Stirring Welcome.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.]
PARIS, Sept. 21.—France today is the host of Gen. John J. Pershing. Seventeen guns from the French cruiser Verdun boomed a thunderous welcome through the morning mists as the liner Paris nosed into Havre harbor carrying the man who was commander in chief of more than 2,000,000 American soldiers on French soil. This time he was returning to France on a peace mission.

The general was received with tumultuous greetings at Havre, accompanied by the black of half a dozen military bands, which contrasted strangely with the solemn mourning more than four years ago when he brought to France the vanquished of the army which turned the tide of the German advance.

First in France's Heart.
First in war four years ago, today he was, for the French nation, first in peace and first in the hearts of France.

The reception which he received from the time his train left Havre until its arrival in Paris was a continuous expression of French gratitude. Ambassador Herriot met the general at the Gare St. Lazare on his arrival in Paris and a French guard of honor was lined up in the streets adjacent to the station. The greeting which was extended to him at Havre was repeated by the high representatives of the French nation.

The general rode to the Hotel Clifton, at which he will stay as the guest of the French nation, through dense cheering crowds, lines of soldiers and children crying "Vive Pershing." A half dozen delegations of patriotic societies, diplomatic officials, and President Millerand and Premier Briand were on hand to extend their greetings. A uniformed color guard from the Paris post of the American Legion acted as Gen. Pershing's escort. The general shook hands with each man in the guard.

"My Second Country."
Gen. Pershing will leave Paris on Saturday for Coblenz to inspect the Rhine armies, returning to the French capital on Oct. 2 to bestow the congressional medal on the French "unknown soldier."

"France is my second country," said the general. Gen. Pershing told correspondents that Maj. Gen. Allen, commanding the troops on the Rhine, and not he, will select the body of the unidentified American soldier who will be buried in Arlington cemetery at Washington on armistice day.

CARUSO'S WIDOW QUITS ITALY FOR AMERICAN HOME

BY V. DE BANTO.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.]
ROME, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Dorothy Benjamin Caruso, the widow of the late Italian tenor, told THE TRIBUNE today to express her thanks to the newspapers all over the world for the tribute paid to her late husband and also to the tens of thousands of persons who wired her their sympathies and whom she could not answer personally.

In granting the first interview since the death of her husband Mrs. Caruso received me in her apartment at the Excelsior hotel. In the room with Mrs. Caruso was her bright faced, little daughter, Gloria. She said half of the messages which she received came from persons who had never heard her husband, but they were all great admirers of him.

Mrs. Caruso stated that the question of inheritance was being settled most satisfactorily for all concerned. Gloria was being taken care of as well as her father could wish, and the tenor's relatives also were being well provided for.

"BEACH RIOT" CASE DROPPED.
Charges against Miss Rebecca Stein of 727 Irving Park boulevard, Mrs. Mary Murray of 1147 South St. Louis avenue, Harry Brown of 932 Sunnyside avenue, and Alex. Ratter of 1111 South Richmond street, for participation in a "riot" at Clarendon beach last June, were dismissed yesterday by Judge Lee W. Carrier.

LONDON JOBLESS FLY RED FLAG; FIGHT POLICE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, Sept. 21.—The temper of the unemployed in London is becoming touchy, and there have been a few disorderly demonstrations, which would hardly be fair to dignity by the name of riots. Last night in the Camdentown district about 800 men marched through the streets carrying a red flag. The police used clubs to disperse them and arrested the leaders.

A more serious outbreak occurred at Battersea today when 2,000 persons marched to the Southwestern police court where two men had been summoned for making seditious speeches. Forty policemen broke up the procession.

About 800 unemployed late this afternoon raided Bert's Army store in Newington Causeway, London, carrying off property worth about $400.

Rough Play on Golf Links Attracts Eye of Courts

Those who regard golf as a brutal game, productive of rowdiness and dangerous to life and limb may get some comfort in the fact that the attention of the courts has been turned to it. There will appear before Justice Witkower of Evanston tomorrow Peter N. Jans of 2314 Central street. "He is accused of 'striking with his fist' Dr. J. D. Leach, also of Evanston. As the announcer says "both boys are members of the same club"—the Evanston Community Golf club. The encounter occurred on the links.

Jans was arrested yesterday, but the justice was too shocked to give immediate attention to the case—hence the continuance until tomorrow.

THREE BROTHERS FREED.
Charges of disorderly conduct against Frank Nelson and his brothers, Raymond, 26, and Philip, 22, 5435 Kimbark avenue, were dismissed yesterday. The three were arrested after a quarrel in which Raymond shot Frank in the right foot.

BIG COALITION INSURES FREE GERMAN STATE

Majority, Socialists En-tomb Hopes of Kaiser.

BY DONALD STONE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.
BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The convention of the majority Socialists, which is now in session at Goerz, today voted overwhelmingly in favor of accepting a policy of coalition with the German people's party. The result of the ballot was 290 for acceptance and 67 opposed.

This step is unquestionably the greatest move since the revolution towards the consolidation of the Democratic forces in Germany and is expected to bring about a new government coalition, enormously strengthening the republic, which henceforth will be unassailable by either the Monarchists or the Communists.

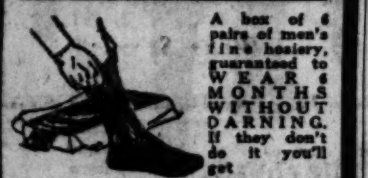

Already the People's party is expressing satisfaction at the majority Socialists' decision. Prof. Kahl, one of the leaders of the People's party faction in the reichstag, declared publicly that his party is prepared to accept the Socialist offer, and he sees no reason why any difficulty should arise in finding a common working program.

The newspapers in Berlin already are speculating as to the personnel of the new cabinet, and some circles report that negotiations are being held to bring about the retirement of Chancellor Wirth, who, it is stated, will be replaced by President of the Reichstag Paul Loebe of the majority Socialists. These reports are no more than pure speculation based on the certainty of the formation of a new coalition with the consequent cabinet changes.

Four generations were represented yesterday at the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Langguth, 1229 Waveland avenue, Chicago pioneers. They had been married just two weeks when their home was destroyed by the fire of '71. Mr. Langguth, a civil war veteran, is a retired dry goods merchant. He is 70 years old and his wife is 69. Two daughters, Mrs. H. A. Dehlinger and Mrs. Laura Runde, and two sons, Fred and Charles Langguth, eleven grandchildren, and one great-grandchild attended the festivities.

ITALY MAY TAKE VALONA AS SERB FIGHTS ALBANIA

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—Fighting between the Serbs and the Albanians continues between the Drin and Matia rivers, thirty-five miles from Tirana.

This information reached Geneva today by long distance telephone from Rome, it having been transmitted via Valona and Otranto.

The council of the league of nations discussed the matter in secret session today.

Bishop San Noll, the Albanian delegate to the league, received no further advice from his government today, but he stated that the Albanian troops will oppose the advance of the Serbians as the attack was launched in the direction of Tirana and the capital.

Seek Help of Albania.

The Serbian idea is to cut through to the Adriatic via Tirana, thereby splitting Albania in two. Eventually Serbia aims to absorb the northern half of Albania. Greece's ambition is to seize a part of the southern portion, and Italy which has been engaged in secret negotiations with Great Britain since June 21, is ready to seize the important naval base of Valona if the Serbs advance. Great Britain opposes the Italian designs for the possession of that port which will make the Adriatic the long dreamed of Italian lake, the straits of Otranto being only twenty miles wide at this point.

The Italian occupation of Valona would bar the British navy from the Adriatic.

Slavo-Slavic Defense League.

M. Spalakovitch, the Serbian delegate to the league, when interviewed today, said Serbia would not permit the league to attempt to intrude in the Albanian question.

"The council of ambassadors," he said, "or the supreme council must fix the frontiers of Albania; thus Jugoslavia will be protected and guaranteed by Great Britain and France. We cannot permit this question to come before the league, as there is no force available to protect or to insure execution of the assembly's decision."

During the day three speakers mentioned the subject of intervention in the Greek-Turkish war.

M. Sereniades of Greece stated that the Armenians must be protected from the Turks and indicated that Greece alone could do it.

Bar 125 Dancing Girls.

The municipal authorities at Geneva refused permission to a Vienna ballet, including 125 beautiful dancing girls, to come to Geneva to appear at a local theater during the assembly meeting. The Geneva city fathers barred the ballet, as it feared that the presence of the dancing girls would distract the delegates and make them take their minds off their work.

SUPREME COURT ASKED TO DECIDE INCOME TAX CASE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Solicitor General Beck asked the Supreme court today to review an income tax case which he declared of vital importance to the government. Involving the question whether incomes of estates are subject to the income tax.

The proceeding was instituted in the United States District court at Chicago by the First Trust and Savings bank as trustee of the estate of Otto Young, deceased, to recover $38,667, which the government had collected as tax on the income of the estate during 1913, 1914 and 1915.

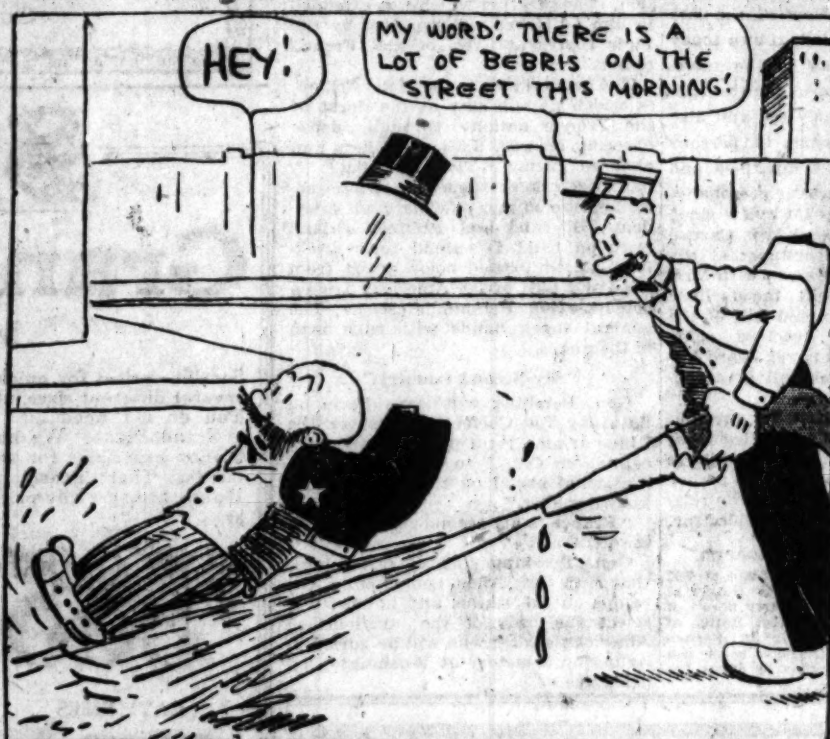

The government won but the court of appeals reversed the decision.

"This decision should not be permitted to stand," the solicitor said in his motion, "as in effect it would permit the accumulation of enormous amounts of money for future and unascertained beneficiaries which would escape their just share of taxation under the income tax law."

RUSSIAN RIVERS FLOAT STARVING HORDE TO SOUTH

Dead and Dying Unhoused in Cold Towns.

BY FAXTON HIBBEN.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
Copyright, 1921, By The Chicago Tribune.
Tribune, Sept. 19.—[Delayed.]—The American commission in Russia left on Aug. 16 and covered 4,500 miles of European Russia. Its members were the first Americans to survey conditions over the entire famine-stricken area from Kusan to Astrakhan. The only thing that will prevent a worse famine next year is immediate American relief on a large scale before ice closes the Don and Volga rivers. Asked if the reports of the famine were exaggerated, Mr. Johnson said: "I don't think so. The Volga is rolling down an immense tide of despairing humanity in a panic of fear of the rigors of the famine and of winter. Not half of them ever will see their homes again."

"Moscow is making a stupendous effort to cope with the migration problem, despite the shortage of locomotives and fuel. It is trying desperately to induce peasants to remain on their farms, so as to plant the spring crops, thus avoiding a repetition of famine next year, but thousands refuse even to sell on government transportation to travel 600 or 800 miles, going by wagon or afoot, often dying by the wayside."

Per Cent of Population.

"These traveling peasants comprise about 30 per cent of the population, and the government is unable to bring food to the peasants scattered over the ten provinces affected, has adopted the policy of bringing peasants to the food. The whole transportation system of the country now is devoted to carrying tens of thousands of families, who are flocking into every railway center and to the Volga, to parts of Russia where there has been at least a fair crop."

At Tzaritzin, the point where all these refugees arrive from the river journey, is the worst concentration of all. The people are camped around the station, the railway yards, and the river front, awaiting trains to take them away.

Trains Black with People.

"From Tikhoretskaya three trains daily of fifty cars each, every car jammed with people inside and out, hanging to couplers, breakbeams, and bumpers, and along the sides—even to the cow catchers—are being dispatched to the villages of the Kuban, Black sea, and Stavropol provinces, and to the Greek republics where the harvests have been better."

"The cold is another factor in the general misery. Rains already have set in, and hundreds of thousands, bedraggled humanity are suffering with cold. Women usually are dressed in a single garment, children frequently only in a few rags, simply waiting for death, unless relief arrives immediately."

STAL AUTO FROM STOREROOM.

Early yesterday three men entered the Winona Motor Sales company's room at 6033 Broadway, forced Jesse Wagner of 4047 Indiana avenue, the watchman, into a Pale car, and drove away. They dropped Wagner at Lincoln avenue and Addison street, from which place he notified the Summerdale police.

M. M. PATRICK, COLONEL, HEADS ARMY AIR FORCE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Col. Mason Mathews Patrick of the corps of engineers was nominated today by President Harding to be chief of the air service, with the rank of major general. The nomination of Col. Patrick, who served as chief of American expeditionary air service, did not come as a surprise in army circles as his name had been mentioned continuously since it became known last week that Maj. Gen. Menoher had asked to be released. Brig. Gen. Mitchell, assistant chief, presented his resignation also, but Secretary Weeks said he had agreed to remain as assistant chief, at least for the present.

Harding Names Envoys to Switzerland and Denmark
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Joseph C. Grew of Massachusetts, now American minister to Denmark, was nominated today by President Harding to be minister to Switzerland. At the same time the President named Dr. John D. Prime, a Columbia university professor, backed by Senator Freylinghuysen of New Jersey, as minister to Denmark.

University of Illinois Has 6,471 Students First Two Days
Urbana, Ill., Sept. 21.—Six thousand four hundred and seventy-one students enrolled at the University of Illinois during the first two days of registration. That is 528 more students than registered in the first two days last year. Officials predict a 10 per cent increase over last year. Then 7,427 attended the first semester.

Henrici's

Henrici menus are never oppressively heavy.

In them you will find, always, not only the substantial meat and fish dishes but also many lighter dishes such as are seldom included in such wide variety elsewhere.

Henrici patrons are privileged by the custom of the restaurant to exercise unconventional preference in selection and combination of dishes. Therein is one of the distinguishing attractions of the restaurant.

SOCIETY WOMEN JUMP INTO NEW BUSINESS FIELDS

Two groups of women, all prominent in social and charity affairs, will invade the business world in Chicago on Oct. 1.

Mrs. Frederick D. Countess, 1524 Lake Shore drive, and Mrs. John D. Black, 225 East Delaware place, and others are going into the advertising business. They will open offices in the Wrigley building the first of the month.

At the same time the First Woman's Investment company will be born with fully equipped offices at 39 South La Salle street. Mrs. Ralph D. Small, 2626 Lake View avenue, is organizing this company and is its head. Associated with her are Miss Agnes Foreman of the Edgewater Beach hotel, sister of Brig. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, and Miss Jessie L. Burdau, 1416 East 66th place, and a number of others.

Mrs. Countess and Mrs. Black with others are entering advertising under the firm name of Fairfield & Co., Inc. Just why this name was chosen was not stated. Perhaps it is meant as a challenge to their more man contemporaries as "a fair field and no favor." Certainly that is their spirit.

"War work with its constant demand on our time is over," said Mrs. Countess. "We felt that we must have something to supplant it. So we made up our minds to go into business."

"Women of means have sometimes been criticized for taking positions which it was said other women who must earn their living should have. So we are not doing that. Instead we are creating some positions for such women."

Mrs. Small, Miss Foreman, and their associates characterize their undertaking as "the first organized effort of women in the United States to enter the financial field with facilities for the wholesaling and retailing of high grade investments represented by bonds, notes, proven securities of governments, public utilities, railroads, municipalities, and old established corporations."

A number of other women whose names were not divulged will be connected with each of the new women's concerns, it was said.

COURT ENFORCES VERBAL PROMISE OF LANDLORD

Mrs. Elizabeth Witman will continue to live in her stove heated apartment at 2134 North Cicero avenue and pay Landlord James Sinadinos $30 a month, through the courts, albeit, it is charged, Sinadinos wanted to break his alleged verbal promise to keep the rent at that figure and charge her $55 a month.

Mrs. Witman refused to pay the increased rental and the landlord hauled her into court. Judge Bernard P. Barasa yesterday declared he wouldn't put the tenant out, but would give her until next March to move.

Sinadinos asked the judge to set the rent. Thirty dollars was the judge's judgment and everybody went home.

KELLY SPRINGFIELD TIRES

WE have seldom indulged in superlatives. Kelly quality has been so well established that it hasn't been necessary. Today, Kellys are better than ever, but their price has been materially lowered. Exhaustion of war-priced material and economies made possible in the new Cumberland Plant have brought down costs and this saving is being passed along to the user.

Now you can buy Kellys for the same prices you will have to pay for other tires that have always sold for less.

Kelly Cords are made in two types: the Kant-Slip Tread which offers a resistance to wet, slippery streets that makes skidding next to impossible, and the sturdy Block and Button Tread. Both are long mileage tires and sell for the same price.

OUR FORMAL OPENING

Now For Our New Clothing Store

IN THE HOTEL SHERMAN STORE

We've been wanting to add clothing in the Hotel Sherman store for a long time, to complete our service there for men who want to dress well.

For months we couldn't get the room. Then it took weeks to get ready.

But it's open now—a little gem adjoining our present quarters, with an archway between—one of the choice shops in the country and a real contribution to the satisfaction Chicago holds for all of us.

Here you can find everything right and fine in men's clothing—all our matchless offerings of suits, overcoats, sport suits, etc.

Men in that part of town who have been walking a mile to get Capper & Capper Clothes won't have to any longer. Men who have always appreciated and wanted them, but have never taken the trouble to get them, can get them now conveniently.

It's a great little store, with a great big line, and men who know how to take good care of you.

Capper & Capper suits are from $45 up.

TRUANTS DELAY WORK OF SENATE; REST FOR HOUSE

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Almost paralyzed by absenteeism, the senate reconvening today, after a month's vacation, found itself well nigh powerless to cope with the imposing array of measures demanding attention. Conspicuous among them are the treaties of peace with Germany, Austria, and Hungary, and the $2,400,000,000 tax revision measure.

Truants Delay Work.
A quorum call disclosed the absence of twenty-six Republicans and fifteen Democrats. When there was a quorum Senator Sterling of South Dakota as a "dry" leader stepped forward to move renewal of consideration of the Campbell-Willis anti-beer bill immediately. The house and senate conference report on the bill was the issue, but Senator Reed refused to agree to fixing a date for a vote.

The "wets," instantly renewing their filibuster, demanded a quorum and for more than half an hour the senate struggled to get forty-nine senators to answer, as some had slipped away after Sterling started. The "wets" moved to adjourn, but the motion was defeated. Then the senate started other business.

Would Restrict Dry Agents.
Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, offered a bill to make dry enforcement officials amenable to state laws for the use of "unnecessary force" and to punish them for "murder" and other high crimes and misdemeanors "that might follow the discharge of their duties. Stanley also offered a bill for a hospital to cost $5,000,000 for treatment of world war veterans who have nerve diseases.

Senator Dillingham, Republican, Vermont, offered a bill carrying a fine of $1,000, five years' imprisonment, or both, for counterfeiting labels or stamps of bonded liquors.

Penrose Reports Tax Bill.
Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania's, chairman of the finance committee, reported the tax bill.

President Harding submitted the three treaties shortly after the senate reconvened. Earlier in the day he had a conference with Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, to whom he indicated his desire for the speedy ratification of all three pacts. He hopes to get them out of the way before the armament limitation conference begins Nov. 11.

Treaties Go to Committee.
The treaties were referred to the foreign relations committee, and Senator Lodge called a meeting of the committee for tomorrow. Senator Lodge expects to be able to report them to the senate within a few days. He does not expect to hold hearings on them.

Senator Lodge would like to devote the afternoons to the tax bill and the nights to the treaties.

POLICE KILLED O'NEILL, O'CONNOR WITNESSES SAY

Three .45 caliber bullet slugs, produced by attorneys for "Tommy" O'Connor, on trial before Chief Justice Kilkham Scanlan for the murder of Sgt. Patrick O'Neill, constituted a surprise defense on the state yesterday. O'Neill was slain by a .45 slug. The police who were with the sergeant when he was slain maintain they used only .38 caliber weapons in besieging O'Connor.

The slugs in evidence today are said by the defense witnesses to have been fired into the Foley home at 5415 Washington avenue by the police during the duel with O'Connor, which ended in O'Neill's death.

Assistant State's Attorney Lloyd Heth, who is prosecuting the murder charge against O'Connor, ridiculed the new evidence.

The case is expected to go to the jury on Friday.

Policeman Struck by "L" Pillar Dies of His Injuries

Patrolman William E. Collins, 32 years old, died at his home, 850 West Garfield boulevard, yesterday from a fractured skull received when he attempted to board a street car and slipped and fell against an elevated pillar in Lake street. Mr. Collins had been on the police force thirty-three years and worked on some of the biggest cases the police dealt with when he was in plain clothes at Central station.

But before that the cost of the $3 shoe was slowly creeping up; until we sold a lot of these shoes without making any money on them.

We haven't any more $3 shoes; we might have, but they couldn't be Hassel quality; that's enough reason for not selling them.

We're applying a new method of merchandising, however, to all our shoes; a smaller mark-up on each pair, and depending on our greater volume for profits.

We are now in operation on this new method; the factories which make our shoes understand it, and are making goods for us on that basis; we're keeping three of them busy. And our customers seem to recognize the values. It's all in their favor.

BATTEN

"Yes, I've heard of him"

A MAN's name is mentioned and you say, "Yes, I've heard of him."

Later on you are introduced, and the next time he is mentioned you remark, "I've met him."

After a bit, you are able to say, "I know him."

You'll find he wears well and before long you say, "He's a friend of mine."

Many times you have gone through those stages that lead into friendship with people.

And many times you have unconsciously gone through the same stages with inanimate objects.

The name of some article is mentioned and because you have seen it advertised you realize that you have "heard of it" somewhere. Then you try it, grow familiar with it, and soon its use becomes a fixed habit.

It is human nature to prefer the known to the unknown. To damn a thing, all you have to say is "I never heard of it!"

Some of us react quicker than others, but nearly all the reading millions of America are profoundly influenced in their buying habits by advertising.

If you make good goods you can build trust in them by making them known. You can mould Public Opinion to a favorable view of your brand by advertising it well enough and long enough.

ONCE a month, or more frequently, we issue a publication called Batten's Wedge. Each issue is devoted to a single editorial on some phase of business. If you are a business executive and would like to receive copies, write us.

THE TAX COMMISSION THREAT.

The announcement that Percy Coffin is about to head a tax inquisition throughout the state, with suggestion as to the objects in view, calls to mind the effort made in the last legislature, with the aid of bribery, to centralize the whole taxing power in the hands of Gov. Small and his sinister boss.

Not since the time of Charles I. in England and the revolution in our own country has such a suggestion of dictatorial usurpation been heard. Luncheon as revealed by the conduct of the Thompson machine in Chicago and the small organization in the statehouse is determined upon absolute and irresponsible power or downfall.

The proposed law to put the power of taxation of all the individuals in the hands of the governor's creature was designed, so that the tax commission might destroy any individuals who dared to oppose or criticize the dominant faction. The present tax commission under the existing law is a toothless wolf. It may frighten a few timid citizens downstate as the city hall has frightened a number of Chicago business men, but it cannot harm them.

It should arouse the people of the state to protect their liberties.

THE AMERICAN FLAG.

Raymond Poincaré, former president of France, in writing to interpret the spirit and purpose of the United States, says:

"Have you ever noticed that the Star Spangled Banner is the only flag in the wide world which does not dip before the head of a state, a king, or a president? That is a little detail, but it is significant."

It is significant, but 90 per cent of the Americans who read it did not know that the ideal of their nation had this ritualistic observance. The flag in the United States is dipped in courtesy to another nation, but never to an individual. If the French colors saluted the American, the flag of the United States would return the courtesy, but it would be in salute to the French nation.

In the United States the nation, even in ritualism, precedes all personalities. The symbol of the nation cannot salute even the President of the United States and cannot salute any other ruler of state.

In that fact is the revelation of a principle which has made it possible for the United States to draw its citizenship from nearly every quarter of the world and remain a nation.

SUPPORT FOR RELIEF WORK.

Generally we wait until we have a trouble at the highest degree of temperature before we undertake to correct it. The probabilities indicate a winter of distress. It can be mitigated and may be avoided, in its major consequences, by the social forces which can be organized and put to work. The need of relief action has been anticipated by the representatives of forty organizations which met last week to lay down a program of organization and procedure. These organizations when they have decided upon a course of action will need support. Some of the support must come from public officials. Some of it must come from citizens. All should be prepared to give it.

FOR MORE SPEED WITH LESS DANGER.

THE TRIBUNE recently suggested the development of a system of through routes for automobile traffic in Chicago which would allow more unrestricted flow of automobiles, and perhaps of bus lines, thus helping to take a load off the street cars. It was argued that by improving certain through streets, north, south, and west, and allowing to automobiles the right of way on these streets, unhampered by the sudden turning in of cross traffic, transportation could be so greatly improved that it would promote the entire growth of the city.

Further consideration of the subject has led us to the belief that the general idea might be applied without any improvement of certain streets, but with equal or greater benefit, merely by the promulgation of necessary traffic regulations. The city's construction, with the loop as the center of activity, and streets running more or less radially north, south, and west, make it comparatively easy.

Thus all north and south streets north of the loop and east, say, of the north branch of the river, could be cleared by ordinance or street regulation for through traffic. That is, no east and west traffic crossing those streets, except perhaps on three or four trunk lines or boulevards such as already exist, could cut into the movement of north and south traffic without coming to a full stop, as is done at present before turning into or across any boulevard. In the same way all north and south streets on the south side east, say, of Clark street, would be cleared for through traffic, while east and west streets, west of the north branch of the river and South Clark street, would be cleared for east and west through traffic, subject to similar restrictions.

This, we believe, would be a comparatively simple matter. It would facilitate the ease and speed of driving into the loop from any section of the city, and would at the same time reduce the present danger of accident at corners where right of way is in question. It would be as easy for a motorist to stop at a street marked "Right of Way, Stop," as it is now for him to stop at a street marked "Boulevard, Stop." The regulations would be easy to learn, as the one essential for any driver would be for him to remember whether he was in the north, south, or west zone of the city. It would speed up traffic and reduce danger. The police or, if need be, the council might well consider it.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL IS THE NATION'S APPEAL.

The country is unanimously back of the President's appeal to congress for expeditious legislation. Partisan politics, the vociferous demands of one-sided minorities, the inertia of legislative routine block the way to relief. We can only pray that leadership in congress will sweep them away. Five million Americans are out of work. Business, though trying to rise, is burdened and checked. Correction of hastily imposed war taxes is imperative. The railroad situation, which lies like a lead of lead on the nation, must be cleared up. The tariff must be promptly adjusted. Peace relations with central Europe must be fixed. Until these obstructions to healthy restoration of the national energies are removed the nation must remain weak and half paralyzed.

The moment calls for clear headed, broad minded, resolute action without delay. Patriotism appeals against the demagogue, the narrow partisan, and the crank. The President has voiced that appeal and congress should rise to the occasion.

PUBLICITY AT THE CONFERENCE.

The chief factor in the failure of the Paris conference to make a durable peace was the policy of secrecy. The complete surrender of Mr. Wilson of his famous principle of "open covenants, arrived at," was a defeat for the Democratic and peace bringing elements of the post-war situation. We have never approved the naïve interpretation of this formula advanced by impracticals. It is impossible to conduct complicated negotiations touching delicate relations by town meeting methods. There are things which for a time cannot be made public without defeating the purpose of negotiation and even inflaming hostilities to the point of war. But there is a vast difference between throwing the doors wide open to the press and keeping them tight closed as at Paris while feeding the public with doctored reports.

Congressional pronouncements, in any case, cannot bind any of the conferees except our own. But we are inclined to believe that an emphatic expression of opinion in favor of the utmost practicable publicity would have a desirable effect at this time. There are general policies and proposals which should be frankly and openly discussed in order that the public opinion of all nations may pass upon them before decisions are reached, and in order that all nations may know what the main tendencies and intentions of other nations are. We in America at least accept the dictum of Mr. Balfour, who has said that "democracy is government by public opinion," and now that all governments, save that of Japan, are democratic, the play of public opinion upon international politics should be not only permitted but encouraged.

If we are to have peace it must be founded on public opinion and upon terms approved by public opinion. But there can be no such peace unless opinion is given a chance through publicity to formulate and make its conclusions effective at the conference.

THE WHY OF THE COMICS.

[Seattle Post-Intelligencer.]

Why the comic pictures in the newspapers? What is the psychology of the Sunday comic pages in color? Why do people like daily comic "strips"? These are questions that many have asked and that many keep asking. Many answers have been given—hastily, thoughtlessly, sometimes foolishly, and often without information. And yet, to any one possessed of a sense of humor, it would seem just about as reasonable to ask, "What is the use of fun? What is the psychology of laughter?" With a smile, a chuckle, a laugh, the brain is relieved for the moment from the load it ordinarily carries. The belt slips from the wheel; the machinery comes to a stop; there is a pause at ease. Humor is good for children because it stimulates their minds, accustoms them to sudden surprises. Humor is rest for the adult, it is good for him, because it stops the thinking in the tired part of the mind, transfers it to another part, relieves the nerves. They say laughter distinguishes men from animals. It is certain that earnest thought distinguishes men from animals. Also certain that it tires men, and that the best, instantaneous relief from tiring thought is found in laughter. To the publisher who must make his newspaper circulate and succeed, the comic section is most important. First of all, it interests children, impresses them, and causes them to ask for the particular newspaper that has amused and entranced them. When the children ask for the paper, and the newspaper is the newspaper usually that their mothers will read. And one mother reading a newspaper is better for the publisher than any two men—first, because she is better; second, because the mothers spend the money, read advertising carefully, because they are economical, thus making the advertising pay and making the newspaper pay. There is some just, and more foolish, criticism of comic newspaper pictures. Some criticize newspaper comics because they do not teach some high moral lesson. That is not the purpose of the comic artist. He should strive, of course, to make vivid and virtuous beautiful; everybody should try to do that. But his actual job is to make men, women, and children laugh, and if he does that, without offending good taste, he is a good comic artist.

WAGE REDUCTIONS.

[The Weekly Review.]

Notwithstanding the bad condition of both foreign and domestic business, and the fact that there are more than five and a half millions unemployed in the United States, Mr. Gompers continues to declare that there can be no further reductions in wages. If that is the case, we may as well abandon our export trade in manufactured goods, and that will bring no relief to the unemployed. And if wages and other domestic trade also will remain stagnant, for the farmers can not and will not buy at any prices at which the manufacturers can afford to sell—there is no help for the unemployed in this direction. This is no fault of the manufacturers, for just now it is not they but the farmers who dominate the situation, because of the tremendous fall in the prices of agricultural products, and the consequent reduction in the farmers' purchasing power. They have already taken their losses, and now they are asking everybody else to do the same. Certainly they are not paying last year's wages for agricultural labor, and if Mr. Gompers could have compelled them to do so, they would have left vast tracts of land untilled and many thousands of laborers unemployed. The farmers can buy, but only at low prices; they can employ, but only at low wages; and the case of the manufacturers, though more complicated, is not essentially different. We are going back to normal conditions, and anybody who blocks the way by trying to perpetuate wartime inflation is making trouble for all concerned.

Here to the line, let the quips fall where they may.

SONG.
My love is like this holly leaf
I plucked in Oxford town—
This holly leaf that still was green
When other leaves were brown.
The heedless years can never dissolve,
Nor can the oceans drown,
The love that with this holly leaf
I send from Oxford town.

The Most Beautiful Thing in the World.
[From the address of a life insurance company president.]

Often we find that wives don't care for life insurance. They don't like the thought of death, the sign of death coming. But it is upon the marble face in the coffin that tears of gratitude fall. Ah, then, the widow and the children are gathered around the casket, and they are looking down at that still, white face, and they are saying: "He gave up what he wanted; sometimes he gave up what he needed, in order that we, after his death, should not be penniless, but provided for." Then the tears flow. And he doesn't know anything about it. The Most Beautiful Thing in the World!

WE wish to ask the Society for the Suppression of Cruelty to Overworked Words if it can cite an authentic instance of an item in any radical publication which does not contain at least one stupid shop, capitalist, proletariat, serf, mass consciousness, or commercialized press.

YOU'D be surprised at the number of persons who are chuckling now at this one: "Let The Trib follow you to your vacation place," the ad read, and the first gentleman remarked to the second gentleman: "Yes, but for God's sake don't get it sore at you or it will follow you to your grave."

Both Were Gaining at the Stars.
[From the Knoxville, Mo., Daily Express.]
The Greenport youngster, who drove two miles before he discovered his girl had fallen out of his buggy, only shows how small a hold some people have on their sweethearts.

BLEST is he, who, looking back from thirty-five, knows no regrets. One by one the great dreams of childhood have passed into the limbo of forgotten things; ideals to which a sentimental adolescence clung have proved illusory. Sometimes one asks, "Is it worth while?"

It is. He who says otherwise is a weakling. We can only surmise what part we play in the eternal scheme of things, but we know that today we live. That is some of us do. As Life gives to each what each gives to Life, one may be either a god or a clod.

How long the road seems at first and how quickly it is traveled—15 to 35, to 40, 45, 50, 60. One meets many travelers along the way and learns many things, the most precious of which is the value of friendship.

We will not pass this way again. But far beyond earth's where and when May we look back upon a road
Where on both sides good seed we sowed.

We will not pass this way again. May we be courteous to men, Faithful to friends, true to our God. A fragrance on the paths we trod.

OUR OWN JOOZEE WHO.

[By Paunchyone (Pilate).]
Jules supplies only millionaires and deals now in bulk transactions, such as boat loads and trains of whiskey. He himself is many times a millionaire and is part owner of six islands now being fitted up for summer resorts. Jules began simply, as most young men do; he sold by the drink, half pint and pint. He took his first profits and ceased bootlegging temporarily in order to open up his famous School for Indian Goggles, handled exclusively by Jules, which now has a New York branch office. It is rumored that Jules is seeking the bootlegging concession for the disarmament meeting in Washington.

THE town pump, symbol of the homely and me, or a common sense phase of life, still dominates Kansas. Judge Porterfield of Kansas City is lecturing four trunks; they grin; the judge leaves the bench, removes one shoe, takes each boy in turn across his knee and spansks him. Can you imagine that happening in Chicago or New York? And we are rather c2k if the judge prefaced each spanking with the dear old formula, "Remember, my son, this hurts me more than it does you."

JINGLES.
While John Doe is excusing for a Henry James tidbit we shall interlude with a jingle variation the children used during the world war:
Eeny, meeny, my no, Catch the halfer by the toe, If he hollers make him say, "I surrender to the U. S. A."

Here is one, A. A. writes, that was used in England in the Two, four, six, eight, Mary at the cottage gate, Tossing cherries off a plate;
Two, four, six, eight, Ethel M. A. and Gracius duplicated on this one, a version of which had previously been published. Gracius writes: My grandmother, 99 years old, says the version was woefully. Here is her version:
Aley, maley, tipsy tee, Tiley, toley, domalee! Gock, poach, cooey soech, Tiley, toley, tiss.

Mrs. J. H. B. writes: Perhaps some of your readers who have passed the three score and ten mark may recall this one:
One-ergal, two-ergal, sigger and sam, Bob-tail vinger, Little Fell ran; Hiram, skiram, verlam, mifram, O. C. T. out.

And here is a curious, which Trude and his playmates used to sing when they played a game resembling prisoners' base:
First Side: How many miles to Barlybait?
Second Side: Three score and ten.
First Side: Can I get there before candlelight?
Second Side: Yes, if you hurry.
First Side: But take care that the long legged witches don't catch you.
Second Side: No, we'll fly like a needle in the sky.

GERMANS AND THE FUTURE.

THE Eugenic Review, a British publication, gives space to a report of an American eugenics meeting at Cold Springs Harbor in which the future of the German people was the subject of discussion.

The German birth rates and death rates always have been comparatively high. The birth rate, which always was well over forty fifty years ago, had fallen to a little more than half that figure a few years before the world war. Even at that, it was fairly well above the death rate. Since 1914 it has been less than the death rate until recently, but in all probability now is above it. Nevertheless, those in authority are keenly alive to the situation.

The constitution of the new republic adopted at Weimar July 30, 1919, abounds in clauses conferring on government powers to do welfare work in promoting the health of the people as well as care of the people. Article 7 says the national government, in conjunction with the states, shall exercise the right of legislation over population policies, provisions affecting raising of babies, young children, and adolescents, and to promote the public health.

Article 9 deals with community welfare. Articles 19 to 194 encourage fecundity and make for the health and welfare of children. Article 119 provides that marriage as the foundation of the family is under the protection of the constitution. The maintenance of the purity, the health, and the social advancement of the family is the task of the state. Families of numerous children have a claim for compensating care. Motherhood has a claim upon the protection and care of the state.

Article 120 says education of their offspring to physical, mental, and social ability is the highest duty of the state. In the eugenics meeting the fundamental contribution to human advancement of the German people was frankly stated. The world finds fault with the policy of those who conceived it to be the duty of the German government to retain their population in Germany and to outbreed the rest of the world. The German people are not so stupid as to suppose that they can impose by force and right of conquest their superior civilization on others.

Their basic idea was correct. But they were wrong in building around it a structure of chauvinism, local patriotism, and undue advantage to themselves, gain and all through power. They attempted to do by force and immediately, and for advantage, things which should and would work out if left to work themselves out.

They conclude: The present (recent) war is the mandate that Germany must supply its old service to humanity by supplying sterling and assimilable reproductive human stock to the young and virgin and to its old and sterile continents.

ABOUT the only difference in quality relates to cleanliness. That in packages has been produced from inside and inside, freed from dirt and heated. In other particulars that in the sack is the same. It can be eaten raw with fruit, cooked as a cereal, made into bread, muffins or cakes.

WHAT IS A "FREE COUNTRY"?
Chicago, Sept. 17.—The writer was very glad to see in this morning's TRIBUNE the editorial on "Organized Sabotage."

It is hoped that there is some opposition organized to place before congress the views of the multitude who believe in religious rights, which are a part of religious freedom.

I am a member of the Presbyterian church, and believe in religion of your own choice, that is religious freedom. I also believe that if a man professes no religion, that is his right, the same as it is mine to choose my church, and to try to force the beliefs of some one else down his throat is going to do no good, but will simply be distasteful beliefs taking away his religious rights. It goes without argument that there are no blooded Americans among the ministers who are backing this movement. They don't want Sunday golf, tennis, baseball, movies, etc. No, of course not, and I dare say none of them ever took part in one of these amusements on a week day, either.

The question to be considered is where are these "anti" taking us? When one sees ministers back of a movement like this it almost makes you feel like denouncing religion. What is their object in this movement? Not to make our country a more Christian nation, because a child can see it won't. Not to make a better country in general, because freedom has always been one of our best assets. It looks like a selfish plan to make everybody see things as they themselves see them.

It is hoped warning will be taken from the results of the organized movement for liquor prohibition. How many people not in favor of prohibition at back and laughed at a lot of thin blooded pacifists hobnobbing on their beliefs which they were attempting to force on the people. So they were, but sufficient opposition was not organized to bring before those legislators who had the deciding power to show that the movement was not of the majority. The outcome of this movement will be the same unless that warning is taken seriously.

What is a "free country" without freedom?
A CITIZEN.

A WORKMAN ASKS PROTECTION.
Chicago, Sept. 20.—Now that the carpenters have definitely refused to work under the Landis decision, are they to be allowed by threats and otherwise to prevent men who are willing to accept $1 per hour from working? Today, in answer to an advertisement for non-union carpenters, I applied for the job and was told to go and get my tools. I had not got 100 yards from the place when I was approached by two over-dressed bullies, who told me if I came around there again to order my funeral.

CATS' OF CLERKS MAIL R

[BY A STAFF OF THE TRIBUNE.]

Washington, D. C. Mail robbery tially stamped out. For the year ended April 30, 1921, the Postmaster General reported a total of $4,346,407, with a net loss of $1,017,191. In April 1921

'CATS' OF POSTAL CLERKS REDUCE MAIL ROBBERIES

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Mail robberies have been practically stamped out as a result of the arrest of postal employees and the offer of a reward for the capture of mail robbers, Postmaster General Hays announced today.

For the year ending April, 1921, the amount stolen from the mails was $1,434,407, with a recovery of $2,286,811. In April postal employees were given revolvers and shotguns with instructions to use them if necessary, and a reward of $5,000 was offered any one who might bring in a mail robber. In the five months since the promulgation of the order, the total amount stolen dropped to $388,530, with a recovery of $75,555.

The plan of campaign against mail robbery and the determination of department employees to capture them, dead or alive, was demonstrated during the attempted robbery which occurred at midnight Sept. 14 on the Texas and Pacific railroad near Fort Worth, the details of which were made public today by the department. Previous information as to the holdup had been obtained through the activities of the agents of the railroad company, the American Express company, and the city detectives, the department of justice, and the postoffice inspectors. That information, which was conclusive, indicated that probably two, and certainly one bandit, would enter the train immediately upon its leaving Fort Worth and would hold up the messenger in charge of the mails; that when the train reached the place where the mail was to be thrown off, the messenger would be killed.

Alvin S. Page of Ardmore, Okla., assistant chief clerk of the railway mail service at Fort Worth, volunteered to act as the messenger to be held up. Before the train left Fort Worth postoffice inspectors T. D. Dawkins and P. C. Ellis, and Deputy United States Marshal Douglas Campbell and regular Messenger McLeander concealed themselves in the car.

The train left Fort Worth at 11:40 ten minutes late. In about one minute Randall J. L. Moore of the "pure breed hog" slayers, he struck at labor in his luncheon talk. There he said:

"It is not that we are paying one man too much, but that we are paying too many men to do one man's work. Slacking on the job has been introduced since war times and the object now seems to do as little as possible for as much as can be obtained."

Moore was killed and a half hour later his pals met the same fate at the place the mail was to be thrown off.

"It is not that we are paying one man too much, but that we are paying too many men to do one man's work. Slacking on the job has been introduced since war times and the object now seems to do as little as possible for as much as can be obtained."

Allen Assails Labor, Tariff, in Two Speeches

At a luncheon for the delegates to the convention of the American Baking Industry given by the Association of Commerce yesterday, Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, labeled the emergency tariff bill as a "monstrous effort at price fixing."

Having struck at the employers at a meeting of the bakers' convention earlier in the day when he said that some capitalists are guilty of "pure breed hog slaying," he struck at labor in his luncheon talk. There he said:

"It is not that we are paying one man too much, but that we are paying too many men to do one man's work. Slacking on the job has been introduced since war times and the object now seems to do as little as possible for as much as can be obtained."

MINERS TO ASK HIGHER PAY AS CONTRACT ENDS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—Declaring that the average miner's earnings on a wage of $7.50 a day, mines running about 300 days a year, are $1,500 a year, Vice President Philip Murray of the United Mine Workers of America told their convention today higher wages would be asked when the agreement expires March 31.

The report of Secretary-Treasurer Green showed an average membership for the year ending last July of 515,248. The peak, he said, was in December of 1920, with 553,295, the largest the union ever had. Since July the average paid up membership, he said, was 442,057, with 73,188 exempted from dues because of lack of work.

The financial statement covered two years, ending Aug. 1, 1920, and Aug. 1, 1921, respectively. The income for the first of those years was $2,352,821, with expenditures of $2,907,148. For the last year the income was $4,846,311, with expenditures of $4,987,988. The balance Aug. 1, 1919, was $1,728,306, and on Aug. 1, 1921, it was $1,132,391, but Green explained the latter balance included $688,600 of borrowed money and $57,581 tied up in litigation in Colorado, making total net available cash on hand $483,820.

Exide BATTERIES

Every Time You Telephone

When you telephone, the electric current that carries your voice over the wire is supplied by a storage battery. The Bell Telephone, and practically all other telephone systems, rely on Exide Batteries.

Exides propel locomotives used in the mines. They run street vehicles and industrial trucks; they light yachts and passenger trains; operate railroad signals and giant drawbridges. In scores of ways Exide Batteries assist in our commercial supremacy.

The first automobile starting and lighting battery was an Exide. The Exide made for your car today lasts long because it is the product of long experience. Built into it is the experience of the oldest and largest manufacturers in the world of storage batteries for every purpose.

We try to make Exide Service of as high a quality as Exide Batteries, and we would like an opportunity of being useful to you.

By Mae Tinsie.
This is a "flapper" picture.
What is a flapper picture?
A flapper picture is a picture about a flapper.
What is a flapper?
According to Webster, (a) one that flaps. (b) a young game bird, esp. a duck that has not yet learned to fly well. Between the (a) and the (b) there are some other definitions, but (a) and (b) fit the present occasion admirably.
The heroine of the film is flapped into boarding school by her parents. She is flapped out of it by the school faculty, and finds herself flapped into the home of her aunt, Mary McLaughlin, who does not believe in men!
The one thing—things—nice Mary does believe in and thoroughly understands!
Follows considerable flapping on the part of the flapper to apply certain acid tests to a dozen more or less poor creatures, object being to ascertain as to whether she or Aunt Mary has the right line on the situation.
How does it all turn out? Having in mind a gently reprehensible man who asks why, why he criticizes his pictures for him by telling him plots, I shant satisfy anybody's curiosity this morning. The same correspondent says how much more interesting it would be were the critic to "recapitulate" the psychological effect the picture has on her. Isn't there, he asks, a lot more to be said about a picture than "good acting, fine photography, first rate direction"?
He has my goat! I am not shy to talk about myself. Her must not tell the plot. As to acting, photography, and direction, it seems they should have no mention.
We summon our Indian control and go into the silence.
Selah!

CLOSEUPS

Mme. Nazimova, who, accompanied by her husband, Mabel Normand, Rudolph Valentino, and a couple others, is back on the coast. Her husband, Charles Bryant, decides that the lady will make two more pictures before returning to the speaking stage—Lillian Walker is homeward bound after a continental trip and a visit to relatives in Sweden. Upon her return she will begin rehearsals in a play by Avery Hopwood which A. H. Woods will produce.
"Little Lord Fauntleroy," with Mary Pickford, will follow "The Three Musketeers" at the Randolph.

Betty Anne's mother, who was arranging the table for a dinner party, put on for a centerpiece a big fancy basket of choice fruit, and warned Betty not to touch it.
Shortly after brother Andy came in from play, and seeing the fruit whispered to Betty, "Let's take an apple." Just then Betty heard her mother coming. "No air!" she declared loudly. "There's for trimming, not for eating."
T. P. H.

Mary was told that the family would, on the following day, go to visit her grandmother who lives in a nearby town.
When ready for bed in the evening, she asked: "Are you sure going to grandma's tomorrow?"
"I expect to," her mother answered. "Well, don't go and take your mind back," warned Mary.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Brisket Beef Broth.

Beef brisket is now selling at phenomenal low prices, that is, if you know how and where to buy.
Beef broth made from the brisket of beef is the epitome of bouillon. It is the broth that made a man in Paris famous and rich, and helped him to establish a string of inexpensive restaurants that served humanity, especially the crowd of art students of Paris, and the impetuous tourist, more helpfully than any one can ever measure.
Two pounds of beef brisket, two quarts of water or a little more, one onion, one sprig of parsley, one teaspoon of salt, put over a fire so slow that the water will not come to a boil short of an hour, with skimming as needed, then kept at a simmer for four or five hours, will give you a beef broth of the real Parisian type, a bouillon; and the meat may be eaten as bouillon.
When the broth has been cooled long enough, cool it quickly by setting kettle in cold water, and changing water frequently. When it is thoroughly cold, remove the softly cooled fat, take out bones and meat, strain through a cloth, heat up, and serve in cups. To make it a little stronger reduce by cooking down a half. The scant amount of salt helps the skum to rise, and will not be too much should the broth be reduced.
Even the bones from this meat might be used for stirring sauces or as a spatula—that is, if we were hard up for utensils, or nice about perfect flavoring of meat sauces. A metal spoon if not good.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

JAYNE B.: I NOTE THERE IS some talk going on about a greater substitution of bath tube with shower baths, but I think it will be some time before we who love the family tub will part with it willingly. A tub may be kept quite hygienic with reasonable care in the home. Of course, in public places the shower has distinct hygienic advantages. I think the ideal arrangement is to have both, with the addition of a spray over the tub for the cold shower that tones the skin and puts "pep" into the day.
M. P.: THIS DAILY SETTING UP exercises have appeared in these columns so often, I cannot repeat them. But I'd be only too glad to mail them to you in illustrated form, in return for a s. a. e.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Quite a Breakfast.
I have had a number of extremely embarrassing moments in my life, but the one I recall the most vividly just now is the time I committed a breach of boarding house etiquette.
It was my first breakfast there. I was rather shy and attended closely to partaking of the meal, which consisted of fruit, cereal, meat, potatoes, and some hot bread.
When I had about finished, the maid set an individual plate of three pan-cakes beside me with a small pitcher of syrup. I proceeded to eat them.
It slowly dawned on my consciousness that something was wrong; that the other guests who had entered with my eyes to catch a withering look from one of them, and as they rose to leave I heard the maid, as she passed through the door to the kitchen, call out to some one, "Miss Allen eat all the pancakes!"

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

I want to be the medium through which the friend in need and the friend in need may be brought together. It may be you have some discarded article which has got outgrown its usefulness that will make some one's fortune one hour, and you would gladly give it if you knew how to go about it. Write to me and I shall be only too happy to be of service to you. Please write on one side of the paper. When information is wanted by mail, a stamped, addressed envelope should accompany the request. Please do not send parcels to the Tribune, but write for the address of the applicant and send direct.
"I am writing to you for the first time, and, in fact, it is my first request for help. I have been an invalid for years, and for the last three years have been shut in the house, not able to get out at all, as I cannot walk. A friend advised me to write to you. She thought perhaps some one would have a 'wheel' chair she would let me have. My husband is earning a small salary and we cannot afford to buy one. I would be delighted to get out in the fresh air while the weather is still nice. My husband would take me out evenings."
Mrs. M. J.
It would be a real joy to be able to tell Mrs. M. J. that some one has for her the wheel chair so necessary to her comfort.

WHEAT TUMBLES 3 1-4 CTS.; CORN GOES TO NEW LOW

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Confidence of holders of wheat has been shaken by the disappointing action of the market of late. Houses with cotton exchange connections were free sellers early, which was regarded as liquidation on the part of some of the recent heavy buyers. This selling found the market rather poorly supported except from commission houses on resting orders and from local shorts. Prices dropped rapidly, and closed at the bottom with net losses of 3 1/4 cts. Corn sold at a new low in the crop and closed 1/2 cts. lower, while scattered liquidation was on in oats, with a decline of 1/4 cts. Rye was off 3/8 cts.

Trade in Barish Mood.

The trade generally was rather barish and weakness in the stock market served to accentuate this feeling. Wet weather in the Canadian northwest, which was a factor in advancing prices earlier in the week, was ignored, while the material falling off in arrivals in the northwest as compared with a week ago failed to attract attention. Bids for cash wheat from seaboard were reported at 49 1/2 cts. out of line and 70,000 bu. were sold to go to store for delivery on September contracts. The only export business reported was 25,000 bu. of Manitoba and Durum at the seaboard. The two northwestern markets received 568 cars, compared with 1,550 cars a week ago and 945 cars last year, the movement falling short of 1920 for the first time.

At no time were futures and high as the previous day's finish and at the last September was $1.23 1/2, December $1.24 1/2, and May $1.25 1/2.

Corn Futures Hit New Low.

A new low for the crop was witnessed for corn futures, there being considerable pressure on the market from commission houses. Buying against bids and some short covering checked the break, but the undertone was heavy a good part of the day and sentiment generally bearish. The government weekly weather and crop report indicated considerable damage in parts of the west by excessive rains. Country offerings were light as the result of wet weather and bad roads and receivers expect small receipts.

Oats showed independent weakness with longs in September inclined to let go despite the reports that France was requiring for offers at the seaboard, making the sixth European country that is showing interest in the market. Bulk of the trade was of a local character, with a lack of aggressive support. There was considerable buying of December and selling of May at 4 cts. difference by commission houses. Sample values were 1/4 cts. lower, with receipts 122 cars and shipping sales of 60,000 bu.

Rye was affected by the action of wheat and closed at the low point. Export demand was slow and 70,000 bu. were sold to go to store for delivery on September contracts. No 1 on-track sold at 10 cts. per bushel.

Cash Provisions Slow.

Cash demand for provisions has let up and the stronger cotton market failed to bring in buying orders for futures. There was some selling of lard credited to packers, but the close was on a good rally on the nearby deliveries, with prices unchanged to 1/2 cts. lower, while ribs were dull and 5 cts. lower. Increased receipts of hogs in the east were a factor.
